Family Promise of Irving was founded in 2010, and is a non-profit Affiliate of Family Promise, headquartered in Summit, NJ. It is a faith-based, social service agency that supports families with children who are experiencing homelessness.

- ★ Support is given to families through a network of local faith communities who utilize Family Promise as a mission for their congregation to provide meals, engagement, and TLC for 3-4 families, one week at a time, 4-5 times a year.
- ★ Families currently are sheltered in two, two-bedroom apartments. These apartments serve as their temporary shelter where volunteers bring them a meal every evening.
- ★ With 13 Partner Congregations and several Corporate Partners, Family Promise of Irving relies on more than 400 trained volunteers.
- ★ During the day, the families got to work, meet at the Day Center with the Executive Director and Case Manager (professional social service providers) who assist them in setting and reaching goals that will allow them to move into permanent housing and return to self-sufficiency.
- ★ Family Promise of Irving's modest budget is funded through direct cash and in-kind contributions from individuals, companies and organizations, and from 2-3 fundraising events each year.

Entering the program

- ★ Families are referred by local social service agencies, congregations and schools.
- ★ Each family is interviewed to determine their suitability for the FPI program.
- ★ Before being accepted into the program, adults undergo drug screening and background check to determine if there is violent criminal history or current drug use, which would eliminate them from the program.
- ★ The parent(s) or guardian(s) sign a contract, understanding the requirements of the program (housing arrangements, behavior, drug/alcohol policies, etc), for 30 days, which can be extended as needed and is dependent on progress toward goals.

Irving

- ★ Over 1,075 children were identified in Irving ISD as being homeless in 2022. (Irving ISD)
- ★ Over 50% of Irving residents are paying over 30% of their income in rent and are considered rent burdened.
- ★ Only shelter to serve single dads.
